

2019 Summer Reading Program

A Universe of Stories

Performance Thursdays

June 6: Snakes in The Stacks with Dr. Vanessa Lane-Wildlife Biologist

Snakes in the Stacks is a family-friendly event that will safely introduce the audience to live snakes with an emphasis on understanding snake biology and behavior. Dr. Lane, a professor at ABAC, brings live snakes from her personal collection. TTCPL welcomes back Dr. Lane's Snakes in the Stacks!

June 13: Under One Sky-Sing Along with Julie Austin

Julie will get you singing along with upbeat songs, dance, sign language, and stories. With guitar, ukulele, autoharp, and jaw harp, Julie actively engages her audiences with songs about the universe, nature, weather, outer space, and cooperation. Guaranteed to get your fingers snapping, your toes tapping, and your hands clapping!

June 20: Take Me to Your Readers with Tommy Johns

This fun-filled show features amazing magic, hilarious puppets, lot of audience participation and lots and lots of books! Roosevelt Rate and some very funny space aliens will be stopping by throughout the show. Presented by award winning magician and puppeteer, Tommy Johns.

June 27: Aliens: Escape from Earth presented by ScienceTellers

Join us on an intergalactic space adventure story featuring awesome science experiments about inertia, pressure, density, chemical changes, and more.

July 4-CLOSED for Independence Day

July 11: Stories in the Stars presented by TTCPL

Tifton-Tift County Public Library will play host to the galaxy as kids visit the portable Star Lab Planetarium from RESA and design constellations to tell their own Stories in the Stars.

July 18: Summer Reading Program Wrap-up Party

All kids should bring all reading folders to be eligible for reading prizes.
